Learning objectives

Ultrasound imaging of the urogenital tract in neonates and infants

- To become familiar with the different pathologic images of neonatal urogenital tract and with renal haemodynamics
- In the practical session, imaging tests will be made to help participants understand many practical issues of diagnosis and the importance of ultrasound follow-up

Ultrasound imaging of neonatal chest and spine

- To understand the technique of the exam which needs high Skill

Ultrasound imaging of neonatal abdomen

- To understand limits and usefulness of gastrointestinal tract, liver, spleen and pancreas ultrasound imaging
- In the practical session, imaging tests will be made to help participants understand many practical issues of diagnosis

Ultrasound imaging of neonatal brain

- To become familiar with the different pathologic images of neonatal brain: morphology and haemodynamics
- In the practical session, imaging tests will be made to help participants understand many practical issues of diagnosis and the importance of ultrasound follow-up

Information

The course will be held in webinar mode, it will be addressed to paediatricians, neonatologists, paediatric radiologists and sonographers.

Case discussions and tests will be included in the program.

English is the official language.

Registration fee

	by 15 February 2021	by 15 March 2021
